

WHAT DOES EXTREME MANAGEMENT SOLUTIONS DO?

Someone asked me that at a networking event recently. My answer was similar to this:

I'm Pete Mackechnie of Extreme Management Solutions and I specialise in changing your business behaviour.

Ah – You're a Coach then.

Yes and No – I'm a fully trained and insured professional coach BUT I do more than JUST coach.

So you're a mentor.

Yes and No – I'm a fully trained and insured mentor who mentors for Business Mentoring Scotland as well as West Lothian Chamber of Commerce BUT I don't JUST mentor.

You must be a trainer then.

Yes and No – I've trained thousands of people over the past 25 years BUT I don't JUST train.

You're a consultant then.

Yes and No – What's the difference between as Tesco trolley and a consultant? You can get more food and drink into a consultant BUT I don't JUST consult.

Well what do you do then?

I specialise in changing your business behaviour.

You can see on each page of the site client testimonials which tell you how they have benefited from working with me – why not do the same.

Pete Mackechnie

Extreme Management Solutions.
